

The BOYDs from Marlacoo, Tandragee, Co Armagh

This document contains a Boyd family tree, followed by gravestone inscriptions from Carnmoney Cemetery relating to the Boyd and Steen families.

The family tree was initially sourced online some years ago, c.2008, but the link to it has not been 'live' now for several years. Subsequently, I have since added a few extra details culled from other online sources and from the Boyd family gravestones in Carnmoney Cemetery.

The original tree was compiled by Lawrence H Boyd with information 'provided by Mrs. Henry Boyd (Louise), 680 N. San Pedro Rd., San Rafael, CA' for the Ireland Boyds Database on a RootsWeb site. Hopefully the original will be republished. Lawrence Boyd refers to the family as the Richhill Boyds. Marlacoo House is placed approximately half way between Richhill and Tandragee, Co Armagh.

Cautionary note: I have checked as many details as I can of Robert and Mary Boyd (eventually of Bloomfield) and their immediate sons and daughters against newspaper notices and other websites. Beyond those listings, please treat others with caution and double-check against any other known sources for accuracy!

There is a memorial to Robert Boyd and Martha Turkington in Mullaghbrack Church of Ireland, close to Marlacoo House.

James Boyd (1726-????)

+Susannah Browne, (????- 1810), m: c.1765/6 (James and Susannah are both said to be from Coleraine)

Two Children

..... Ellen Boyd (????-1838) 'Interred in Clifton St. Cemetery', but I've failed to find that record.

..... Martha Lina Boyd (1836-1922) 'Ohayo', Adelaide Park, Belfast

..... James Steen Boyd* (1838-1920)

+Ellen Campbell (1854- ) m. 14 April 1875, St John Church of Ireland, Sligo. Ellen was the youngest daughter of Harper Campbell, Esq., JP, Hermitage, Sligo.

* In 1887 JSB had taken a court case against the Belfast Harbour Commissioners. JSB was managing director of both the Belfast Warehouse Company (which he founded in 1873) and the Discount Corporation of Ireland; both failed in 1894. He was also managing director of the Old Bushmills Distillery Company when it went into liquidation in 1896. His mansion and estate at Rosemount**, Dunmurry, were sold in 1900 when his address was Gower Street, London; he died in 1920 in Ferndale, Sevenoaks, Kent.

** The 1890 Street Directory gives JSB's address as Dunmurry House.

Mary Ellen Boyd (1876-1936) plus two other siblings (two still living in 1911)

Mary Ellen was born 16 Jan at 20 University Square, Belfast.

A son (1882-????) 4 Feb 1882 at Dunmurry House, Dunmurry

James Browne Boyd (1777-????)
+Catherine Priddicone
Three unmarried daughters

Note:

Mary Ellen Boyd, in Grave No. C048 overleaf, was the daughter of James Steen Boyd and Ellen Campbell.

In the 1911 National Census for England, James S Boyd, a 71 years old widower was living with his spinster daughter, Mary Ellen, aged 35, plus a cook and a servant, at Beau Site, Sevenoaks, Kent.

I reckon she was the same Mary Ellen Boyd, aged 15 and 'born in Ireland', at the fashionable Chelsea school for young ladies, Catherine Lodge, in the 1891 Census.
